For Immediate Release

Alberta Youth Shines at APHA Youth World Championship Show

Caitlyn Malyk of Clive Alberta competed at the 2015 American Paint Horse Association (APHA) Youth World Championship show in Fort Worth Texas June 27th –July 4th 2015.

The Alberta Youth and her mount Hes Lopin Spotless earned the following titles:
World Champion Solid Paint Bred Showmanship
Reserve World Champion Solid Paint Bred Hunter under Saddle
Reserve World Champion Solid Paint Bred Western Pleasure
Reserve World Champion Solid Paint Bred Western Horsemanship
Top 5 Solid Paint Bred Hunt Seat Equitation (3rd)
Top 10 Solid Paint Bred Gelding Halter (6th)

Caitlyn Malyk has been riding for many years, starting at a very early age competing in leadline classes. She has belonged to many associations including being a member of the 2014 Canada World Cup Saddle Seat Equitation Team. Hes Lopin Spotless is a 2008 Bay Solid Paint Bred Gelding sired by Hes Lopin Supreme out of Shes Cruisin Town.

Under the guidance of trainer Katie Roxburgh the Alberta teen set her sights on the World Show and has worked diligently towards her goal. Roxburgh is an American Paint Horse Association Professional Horseman. She along with her husband Doug operate Dun Rite Stock and Stables in Bentley Alberta.

Malyk has the following to say about her world show experience. "This trip has been an amazing experience and a once in a lifetime opportunity. I have always believed my horse was good at what he does. It was so exciting to show the world how great he really is and what an awesome team we are."

Malyk would like to thank her family and trainer for everything they have done to help her get to this point in her life. She would also like to thank all her friends and the Alberta Paint Horse community for their support. Malyk says "it is a great feeling knowing I had so many people cheering me on, in this great adventure".

For more information:
Katie Roxburgh
Ph: 403.350.2568
Email: katie@dunritestockandstables.com
Web: dunritestockandstables.com